

I have been listening to K-love radio over 5 years and appreciate their format and content. Since this is a listener supported station like public radio and tv, we do not have to listen to ads. This is a freedom of choice. I hope that you in no way cause changes to the regulations which would take stations off the air which meet the spiritual needs of listeners such as myself. Thank you!